Sans Souci Club

The reception given the Sans Souci Club on Friday afternoon was sufficient to put the town, socially speaking, in gold attire.

Since the warm spring days have come the clubs of Marshall have been affected with spring fever, and we feel that it was indeed a wise head who said, "We never appreciate anything until we lose it."

The clubs are one of the pleasant features of our little city, it brings together congenial people and widens their knowledge of, and acquaintance with each other; and the strangers within our gates are through these channels given a welcome, which goes far towards making them feel at home with us. Miss Annie Guthery, a valued member of the Sans Souci; was the merry, congenial hostess upon this occasion and in her happy manner made a most entertaining one. In addition to the club, only a limited number of guests were invited. The decorations throughout the rooms were of the most beautiful carnations in shades of rich red, which were sent from St Louis for the occasion. Progressive whist was much enjoyed during the afternoon, and a cooling bowl of punch in the hall had increasing demands made upon it. Refreshments of brick cream and cake were served at a late hour.

Miss Guthery was assisted by little Miss Annie Guthery Pickett and Mrs Wm Sparks.

Birthday Party

Miss Cecil Francisco, daughter of Mrs. Emma Francisco, celebrated her eighth birthday, on Friday, at her pleasant home on Highland, by inviting some little friends to spend the afternoon with her. The afternoon was bright and pleasant and the children all in their happiest mood; with jumping the rope and swinging to their hearts delight and exhausting many innocent games, a most enjoyable time was spent. Refreshments of ices, cake and a variety of candies, was the crowning feature to this pretty birthday party. Those present were, Misses Helen Chapline, Nell Newton, Ruth Rose, Nevada Syres, Edna Harrison, Lucile Griffith, Ruth Harrison and Frankie Johnston.

A Literary Treat.

The lecture on last Friday evening in the College Chapel by Prof. R. J. Peters, was a most interesting one, the subject being "Kipling," according to Prof. Peters, "the greatest living English poet."

The lecture showed him to be thoroughly conversant with his subject. He gave a sketch of Kipling's life, then of his works, both prose and poetical, reading two of his poems, "The Recessional" and "The Vampire," and giving his own interpretation. While the audience was small owing to the threatening weather, it was an appreciative one, and all present felt much indebted to Prof. Peters for this literary treat.

Aristotelian's Entertained.

Miss Booth pleasantly entertained the Aristotelian Chautauqua Circle, on Saturday afternoon at her home in the western part of Marshall. The circle discussed George The First and Second. The literature lesson embraced the noted writers of that period. The quotations upon this occasion were most appropriate and were said to have been decidedly the prettiest of the whole year. After which, refreshments of pine apple ice, beautiful cake and coffee were served. A pleasant time socially was spent, which closed a most delightful evening.

The Misses Field entertained the XXX Club on Friday afternoon at their home in Blackburn. The floral decorations were of ferns, lilies of the valley and palms. The Club was largely attended and the refreshments of ambrosia, cake and coffee were nicely served.

BIDSTRUP & HAMMOND

Marble and Granite Works

One of the most gratifying evidences of the spread of correct artistic taste among all classes of society is the great attention that is now being paid to the productions of beautiful designs in granite and marble in the way of monuments, headstones sculpture etc. Our productions in these lines are not surpassed by those of any other country in the world, and every year the national excellence in this respect becomes more distinctly marked. A leading house in this section of the state in these lines is that of Bidstrup & Hammond. They also have work located in Nevada, Carrollton, Mo, Fort Scott, Kansas and several other branch offices. Skilled workmen are employed in the manufacture of a beautiful assortment of monuments, memorials etc., all of designs embracing artistic taste and conception in the highest degree.

It has been the aim of this house to furnish strictly first class work to the public at fair and reasonable prices and they cordially invite intending purchasers to get prices before purchasing elsewhere. Among the notable pieces of work done by this house we would mention particularly, the monument of the Herring family in our city cemetery, the Chas. Potter monument. They have also did some very creditable work at Glasgow, Howard county notably that of Steinmetz family, the Collins stone, Dr. Vaughn, Cuddy family, and others throughout this section of the state, too numerous to mention.

Personally it can be said of Messrs Bidstrup & Hammond that their reputation for producing the finest and most artistic work is beyond cavil. At the same time their honorable methods of dealing gives confidence to all having business relations with them.

Died.

Mrs. Lottie McLough Thornton, died at her home in this city on Friday night, April 28th, 1899, at 9:30 o'clock in her 56th year.

Deceased was married to William H. Thornton in East Liberty, O., Jan. 1st, 1867, in her 23rd year. Of this union were born two children, Anna Marie, who died in this city at the age of sixteen and Edward Wesley, who remains to mourn her loss.

Mrs. Thornton lived in the vicinity of Salt Springs for some years and moved to this city in 1882. Her husband dropped dead on the street in this city eight years ago.

Mrs. Thornton united with the M. E. church when a girl, and until her health failed, was an active worker in the church. She was fond of children, making them ever welcome in her home. She always interested herself in the sick and made many friends wherever she lived.

Her battles are over; she hath entered into her rest.

Shot at a Burglar.

Sunday morning between two and three o'clock, Harry Parsons not being able to sleep, for the barking of the dogs in the yard, arose and loaded his gun and while waiting that he might get the right dog, he saw a man approach the house and enter the back porch of Mrs. Lottie Jackson's house, where he attempted to reach the refrigerator, that stood on the porch. When Mr. Parsons spoke to him the man ran out through the alley. Mr. Parsons shot twice, but failed to reach him. Some stealing in a small way has been going on in this neighborhood of late and the neighbors are now ready for any such customers.

An Accident.

John Vawter, the oldest child of Dr. Frank Vawter, made an ugly cut on his limb Sunday, about noon. He had a sharp knife and was trying to cut a board that rested on his knees, when the board slipped. When his mother heard his screams, she ran to him and found him standing in a pool of blood, which frightened her very much. Dr. Gore was called and found the wound not serious, although it bled freely. The little fellow was quite faint for a while, but hopes soon to be well.

A Memorial Room.

The ladies of the Presbyterian church have secured sufficient money to endow a memorial room in the Palmer Orphanage at Columbus, Miss.

This is one of a half dozen Orphanages of the Southern Presbyterian church, and is named for Rev. B. M. Palmer of New Orleans, who is one of the bright lights in the Southern church.
